Mayen police station

Immediate protection, anywhere — recording the charges and accusations — issuing of orders requiring the charged person to stay away from his home for up to 10 days — restraining orders ensuring the person is not present at proscribed locations, is not allowed to come close, nor to maintain contact with or approach the victim or others – arrest of the person charged — if the victim agrees, contact data will be passed on to the intervention centre — criminal procedures are initiated

Mayen intervention centre

The intervention centre is a specific centre for women who are directly affected or threatened by violence in close social relationships – the intervention centre contacts the victims – offers advice and counselling in person or by telephone – provides information on legal options within the framework of the law providing protection against violence — provides information to women on what they can do to protect themselves – provides support in case of presenting applications to a court of law or with regard to contacting authorities – assists in finding help within the system
